

CITY NOTICES.

HOUSE OF DELEGATES JOINT RESOLUTION
No. 28.
Be it resolved by the board of aldermen and house of delegates of the city of Seattle, in session as sembled, That it is the intention of the city council of said city to have a sidewalk constructed by contractors on the west side of the front of the avenue to Florence street, in said city; said improvement to consist of a sidewalk six feet in width, and a space between the sidewalk and the street to be covered or filled with dirt, so that the same may be planted with shade trees; said six feet of sidewalk to be built up to a height of one inch two inches thick and eight inches in width.

The estimated cost of grading, clearing and other work preparing the ground for said sidewalk, and said three feet of space in front of the same, is $1,000. The cost of labor and other materials for the construction of such work is $783. The total estimated cost of said improvement to be paid by the abutting property-owners on the west side of the street between the points above named, is $966.60, and the cost of grading the ground and building said sidewalk on the west side, which said abutting property-owners are to pay the property benefited by said improvement.

All persons owning any said abutting property as defined by section seven (7) of article eight (VIII) of the city charter, shall have fifteen days from and after the date of the first publication of this resolution to file with the city clerk protests against said resolution.

WOOD'S Penetrating PLASTER

AN OLD BLUNDER

PLASTER MAKING.

Herefore the makers of plasters have been compelled to use a certain proportion of fat to the oil, and the oil has been nearly always clogged with the fatty acids.

This is no reason that ordinary plasters are not able to act upon the skin.

Wood's Plaster is not clogged with the fatty acids, so its medicinal agents are certainly and rapidly absorbed.

A few minutes after 11 o'clock in the morning a tall man with a bushy beard and wearing a yellow oil coat jumped off a Ballard car at the foot of University street, and going up to Policeman John Sanstrom said:

"Officer, what does a fellow get for putting the law onto smuggled Chinamen?"

"Your witness fees."

"Is that all?"

"Yes."

"Well, I guess there's more money in it for me to help them in than turn them over.
There's a whole slew of them up at Smith's cove. I can lay my hands on them at any time."

The man went away, the officer thinking he was "light" in the upper story. A half hour later he heard about the capture of the first eight Chinamen, and then regretted he had not arrested the old man.

The arrested Chinamen gave their names as Ah Lee, Ah Ten, Ah Hoyt, Ah Chong, Ah Sin, Lee Ying, Fong Nom, Chong Con, Ah Ying, Dong Chong, Bee You, Lee Quong, Gong Loon, Ah Toy, Fong Chong, Ching Quon, Ah Chong, You Kaw. They will be given a hearing before a United States commissioner today.

He Slipped and Broke His Arm.

John Wiley was received at Providence hospital last evening, suffering from a broken arm received Friday night by falling on a pile of bricks. Wiley lives in a small cabin in the rear of the Home Electric Works, on Fifth and Pine streets, and on the evening named was going after a pail of water, when he slipped from the plank walk. In the fall his left shoulder and arm struck a pile of bricks and the arm was broken four inches below the shoulder. He is a member of Stevens Post, No. 1, G. A. R.

He Walked into the Bay.

A half-starved man rescued from drowning in North Seattle.

Martin Paup, proprietor of the California Wine house, at Front and Virginia streets, rescued a man from drowning yesterday morning. He was walking along Front street when he heard cries for help coming from the water, at the foot of Depot street, and discovered a man in the water nearly exhausted. After some trouble the man was rescued and removed to Paup's store where restoratives were administered, and he revived.

The man was almost a skeleton, and although of more than average height, would not weigh more than 100 pounds.
From his condition some of those who now him thought he was addicted to the use of morphine. When sufficiently recovered to speak, he said that he had walked down Depot street to the water front and, while walking on the trestle, had fallen into the bay. He was destitute and, after having eaten at the expense of his rescuers, walked
